

 Orange Shirt Day
September 30

Orange Shirt Day is used to recognize the harm that was done to the children, students and community members who were in residential schools and to show our commitment to the principle that every child matters.

More on Orange Shirt Day: www.ohsday.ca