

7th Annual Grad Scarves Workshops

You are Invited to Create a Unique Aboriginal Scarf to Wear to Grad

This year, you can design and complete your own unique scarf to proudly wear with your cap and gown when crossing the stage at Commencement.

When: A series of 10 workshops will begin on February 7, 2011. Sessions are from 5:30pm – 7:00pm on Monday evenings. Students may use an existing template or design their own artwork. The design is then draw and cut from Where: Dr. Charles Best Secondary with textiles teacher Denise Nembhard; Carrie Clark and Gena Sanderson, Youth Workers.

How to register: Contact the youth worker at your school to register in this program, or call Aboriginal Education at 604-945-7386 and speak with our secretary, Jacquie Boons.

