Course Synopsis:

This course has been developed to encourage students to explore the foundational roots of three European languages for the purpose of building their language skills overall as they recognize and use the shared linguistic structures and patterns of romance languages to communicate across three languages and cultures. Students will learn basic Spanish, French and Italian vocabulary and phrases useful for travelling in these regions. They will examine various aspects of Spanish, French and Italian culture such as history, geography, art and architecture, music, film, and cuisine that supports cultural awareness and engagement for the students. This course is available to all grade levels.

Rationale:

This course has been developed to introduce students to the languages and cultures of Spain, Latin America, France and Italy to efficiently develop language and communication skills as students consolidate the shared structures between the languages. As students develop an understanding of romance language structures and how cultural characteristics are enmeshed with language this will also increase awareness of their importance to Western Civilization. As students’ knowledge of these cultures increases, so does their ability to make observations about their own cultures. They will examine various aspects of culture through media such as the Internet, print material, movies and songs. They will have discussions, do research, and give oral presentations utilizing technology.
