*Note ~ The following criteria are taken into consideration when choosing bursary recipients:

- The recipient should be what the ABEABC members consider a true ABE student, i.e. someone who left school without completing grade 11.
- The recipient should demonstrate excellence, probably in the area of outstanding progress being made (not necessarily academic achievement).
- The recipient should be someone giving their courses their best effort.
- The recipient should be a role model for other students, perhaps one showing some leadership skills, and being a good team member of the classes and the school.
