Course Description

An integrative approach to second language learning will be used in this course. It is based on the principle that students should learn to communicate in Japanese. The Rosetta Stone program puts the accent on the communicative aspect of the language and on learning through reading and oral practice. The primary objective of this course will be to augment that learning with communicative activities online. Students will have ample opportunity to practice their speaking and listening skills in the online environment. Opportunities for practicing written Japanese will also be provided.

Expectations of all Japanese Students

- Demonstrate respect for everyone in the class.
- Regularly check the Japanese Moodle site for assignments and updates
- Stay in touch with the course and 先生 (sensei)
