If you cannot make the meeting, please see Mr. Hill BEFORE period 3 on Friday. We will sign up and inform of tryout times which will be next week.

CROSS COUNTRY

Congratulations to everyone on the Centennial Cross-Country Team! Devon Meadows was the grade 10 boys Coquitlam Champion. Joe Curtis was the Senior Boys Champion and won the Gayle Sayers Award for top male cross-country runner in the district. Congratulations also go out to Juan Pablo, Tom Dos Santos, Justin McDonald, Matt Watts and Mario De Greiff Meraz. If you plan to compete in the Fraser Valley Championships and need a ride you must be at the front of the school at 12:00 noon on Thursday, October 24th. The bus leaves at noon on that day from the front of the school.

FIELD HOCKEY

Important meeting Friday at the beginning of Block 3 in Room B217.

SENIOR BOYS SOCCER

The Sr. Boys Soccer team lost a tough game yesterday to Port Moody by a score of 5-2. The Centaurs had a chance to lock up first place in the league, but ultimately came out flat against a quick Port Moody team and gave up 2 goals relatively early in the first half. Just before half time, Jo Jo Reis got the Centaurs on the board and in the second half, the Port Moody Blues scored again to go up 3-1, but Dante Bandiera answered with a Semi-Bicycle Kick goal. However, with the team changing its formation from a 4-2-3-1 to a 3-5-2 to try and get an equalizing goal, the Centaurs left themselves open to counter attacks and Port Moody scored 2 more goals to finish the game. Playing well in the loss were Jee-Oh Lee, Jo Jo Reis, and Nico Porretti.

The team now must wait to see what happens next week between Best and Fox to see where they finish in the standings going into playoffs.
