

Is proud to present...

Smart, but Scattered

Featuring Christine Abbot, Brenda Peebles and Shannon Sullivan

Thursday, January 30th 2014 6:45 – 8:30 p.m.

at Citadel Middle School

1265 Citadel Drive, Port Coquitlam

$5 per couple/$3 per single

Based on the research of Drs. Peg Dawson and Richard Guare, the presentation will offer concrete ways to understand and help support children who struggle at home and in school with weak executive skills. The presentation will include specific ways that using technology can help with organization, heighten engagement, increase productivity and promote independence. We hope that a better understanding of the role executive skills play in healthy development and identifying tools and strategies that can be used to assist "smart but scattered" children will help them become successful problem solvers and self-reliant adults

- FREE Childminding available with advance registration at ssfspe@gmail.com by January 23
 - Light refreshments provided
