

Morning
Announcements

Citadel Middle School

Tuesday, April 2nd

- 1. Equestrian Club - Any students interested in learning about horses and ponies are invited to attend a meeting with Weir in the Art Room on Thursday, April 4th at lunch to sign-up. This will not be a riding club, but you will get to learn together all about caring for horses, how to communicate with them, how to care for and use different equipment, and possibly some after-school field trips to the barn.
- 2. Middle School book of the Year - Hi Citadel, It's officially time for the SD43 Middle School Book of the Year. There are 10 books that could become the Middle School Book of the Year, the choice is yours. Anyone who reads at least one of the books will be entered into prize draws and if you read 3 or more you get to vote for the Middle School Book of the Year. For more info, come see Mr. Battle in the Library.

One of the Books you could read is City Spies. Sara Martinez is a hacker. She broke into the New York City foster care system to expose her foster parents as lawbreakers. Instead of being a hero, Sara finds herself facing years in juvenile detention and banned from using computers. Enter Mother, a British spy who not only gets Sara released from jail but also offers her a chance to make a home for herself within a secret MI6 agency.

- 3. Archery club – All those who signed up please come to a meeting in Mr. Gill's room at 12:25 tomorrow. Mr. Gill needs to divide the club into two groups for after school practices so don't miss this meeting.