Make Sure We Know Your Plans

We are now well into plans for next year. If you are planning a move – to a different program, or a different school – or you have an incoming kindergartner who is not registered, please contact us right away. Some grades are potentially tight for space and we want to make sure everyone is accounted for.

It keeps growing...and growing....growing....

Like a monster from a 1950's B movie, it almost feels like our lost and found collection has taken on a life of its own. Soon, the blob of wayward clothing may devour the whole foyer...or at least we may run out of tables to house the collection.

We will try to bring the beast outside for you to check out on your way past during morning drop off or pick up. Here's a preview of what you might find:

Of course, we would be happy to see each and every item (how did someone go home with one shoe? weren't they walking funny?) find its way back home with its rightful owner. If you see something in the pictures you recognize, stop by and claim it. Unclaimed items will be donated to a clothing drive before the collection gets so big, we can't get in the front door!

PAC AGM next Tuesday

This coming week is the Parent Advisory Council's regular monthly meeting and the annual general meeting, during which the executive will be elected for next year. There are also important changes to the PAC bylaws being approved so do come and support the PAC and the school. We will meet in the library at 7:00 pm. Child minding is available.

Have a great weekend!
