Hot lunch – Healthier options review

- On Oct 11th, A parent requested via e-mail to include healthier options for the hot lunch. The parent volunteered to contact other restaurants, PAC responded welcoming the help and will follow-up on next steps.
- Linda Intihar left a binder with information about how to run programs operated by PAC, the binder may include information about how to operate hot lunch. PAC will look into the binder for information.
- As of today, there are 152 orders for the hot lunch that will take place on November 18th.
- Cookie day: PAC reached-out to the bakery that helped in 2019, they can bake the cookies for $2.25 each. The price that will be available to kids is $3.0 each, so the markup will be used to fund programs. In 2019 the order was placed for 300 cookies and that number was used to estimate the price per unit for this year.

Review/Finalize updates to the Charter

- The Charter was reviewed, some changes were discussed. PAC will work on refining the document before releasing it to the community.

Next Meeting: Nov 15th, in person.

Adjournment: 8:23PM
