Cancellation

If we cancel

Oh, no – we had to cancel! Sometimes, we don't get enough registrations for a class and have to cancel so it's important to register early to avoid disappointment; we make the decision approximately one week in advance of the first class. If we cancel, we do our best to find an alternative class or we will provide you with a 100% refund.

Refund Policy – All classes, summer camps, spring camps, Pro-D days

Full refunds up to five (5) days prior to the class or workshop start date. Refunds will not be granted within the five (5) day period up to class start date or when first class has started. Requests for exceptions for medical or compassionate reasons may be considered upon receipt of a doctor's note prior to the class start date, or up to and including the first class to info@pomoarts.ca. Upon approval, a refund of the class fee will be granted, less the registration fee and any applicable supply fees.

Private Music Programs: Please contact our front desk staff on 604-931-2008 for information.

Pictures tell the story: We love to show our community the programs that we are offering and how much fun everyone is having. We use the photos/videos we take to promote our programs and events. If you object to having your photo/video or your child's photo/video taken, please let our photographers know. We are happy to comply.

We are a nut and scent free environment. Please do not bring sandwiches, granola bars or snacks that contain nuts into the Port Moody Arts Centre.

At the University of Calgary, Jessica took both saxophone and flute lessons with prior clarinet experience and exercised all three instruments in the jazz orchestra and in the Opretta Company. Jessica provides lessons for flute, clarinet and saxophone. She looks to inspire her students to play and nurture the creative spark that fuels the hunger for further knowledge.

Volunteer Opportunities!

We are looking for creative and energetic people of all ages to volunteer at our events throughout the year, from gallery displays and receptions, to festivals, birthday parties and other special events.

Volunteering is an excellent way to meet people and contribute to the heart of the Port Moody arts community. Our volunteers get to go 'behind the scenes' at our major events.

If you are interested in becoming part of our volunteer team, please drop by the Arts Centre or complete the volunteer application form on our website at pomoarts.ca.

Volunteer Appreciation

Did a volunteer go above and beyond for you? Let us know so that we can recognize them at our annual volunteer appreciation event. Email volunteer@pomoarts.ca.

Ann Kitching Gallery

The Living Palette Kimberly Blackstock & Brenna Quan

This collaboration of passionate painter and fervent floral designer create a playful, theatrical intertwining of 2-D floral paintings and 3-D botanical art.

Suncor Gallery

Panorama Unfolding Enda Bardell

Enda Bardell's fascination with the many facets of the sky were the inspiration for this series of watercolours that capture transformations from clear cobalt blue to turbulent masses of dark greys, and incredible blazes of colour in the evening, radiating a warm glow over land and sea.
