

Using Your Parent Voice at Your School & Beyond

Free Parent Info Session

for all parents of District 43 students online registration is required for everyone attending

This session will focus on educating parents to better equip them to navigate and understand the process, protocols & procedures of the district; why positive relationships with teachers & admin staff at the school level are important, & clarity on the roles & responsibilities of all involved.

Families benefit when parents understand their role & responsibilities within the school community.
