

LIBRARY BOOK NOTICE

Dear Parents,

With summer quickly approaching, all library books must be returned to the library by Friday, June 15th. This is to allow Ms. Abel to take inventory and prepare the library for the next school year. The library is still open for browsing at this time, and students are welcome to come and read in the library during their class visit.

Overdue notices will be sent out during the week of June 18-22, and if you aren't sure if your child has any books out, feel free to email me kabel@sd43.bc.ca and I can check our inventory.

Places where books like to hide:

- on bookshelves (their natural habitat)
- on sibling bookshelves
- under beds
- in the car (especially between or under seats!)
- in forgotten bags (they especially like Costco bags at my house!)
- in the bathroom
- behind or beside the couch
- toy box or bin (usually after "CLEAN UP YOUR ROOM!!" when everything gets quickly tidied away)
- at a caregiver's (grandparents, daycare, aunts/uncles)
- in the classroom (class library, cubby)

Thank you so much! I appreciate your help.
