EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Any students interested in learning the Coast Salish Welcome Song for June 21st, National Indigenous Peoples Day, please come to room 114 at lunch for a short meeting.
- Did you know that around 94 Indigenous communities across Canada are affected by drinking water advisories? This means that numerous Indigenous communities don't have access to clean and safe drinking water. Let's make a change. Access to clean water is a human right. To learn more or donate to support safe drinking water for Indigenous communities, visit waterfirst.ngo.
- All Students who had art work in the Leigh Square show please come and pick up your work from the Art Wing ASAP.
- June is Pride Month!!! Wear your Pride Colours on Wednesday and join the LGBTQ club in a game of Twister by the student parking lot. If you are wearing rainbow colours, there may be a rainbow freezie for you.
- Hey Rapids!! To raise awareness and support research for cancer in BC, an online fundraiser has been set up to help the BC Cancer Foundation. Visit @bccancerawareness on Instagram for more information on how to donate.
- Leadership is collecting boardgames, puzzles, etc. to support our local senior center. Donations will be accepted until Wednesday June 15th. Write your name on the clipboard next to the box after donating in Room 117 and you will be entered in a draw for a $10 Starbucks gift card.
