

High School Courses for Adults

Act now to take high school credit courses tuition-free*

As of May 1, 2015 – Graduated Adults will no longer be able to take High School Credit courses tuition-free. Visit www.ce43.com for more information.

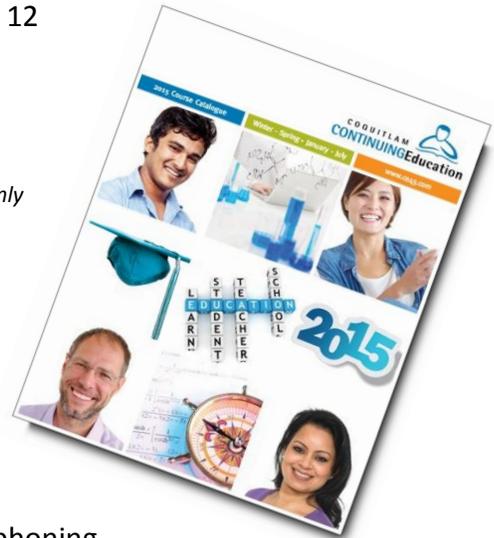

Self-paced (in-person or on-line) courses have continuous entry ... start today!	Face-to-Face classes meet twice a week. (First and Second Semester entry)
---	--

- Biology 11 & 12
- Chemistry 11 & 12
- Communications 11 & 12
- English 11 & 12
- Math 11 & 12
- Physics 11 & 12

Self-Paced Only*

To Register:

- Visit www.ce43.com to create an account and register for courses
- Please phone Coquitlam Learning Opportunity Centre at 604.945.4211 or Continuing Education at 604.936.4261 for assistance
- Book a free appointment with an Academic Advisor by phoning 604.945.4211

Foundations Literacy Courses – Learn Tuition-Free*

Improve or Learn English – Daytime and Evening Courses

- Students who are 17 years of age or older (including students in Secondary school) can register in a Foundations course to improve English skills.
- Registration at Montgomery Centre on Thursday evenings from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- Visit www.ce43.com for more information.

for eligible students – visit www.ce43.com for more information.*