

University and College Applications

*Once you have decided on a post-secondary institution to attend, be sure to check out their specific website for scholarships and bursaries!

*This list is a reference point for some of the post-secondary schools. Please be sure to check school websites for any updates or additional information.

- BCIT – Applications are accepted year-round for trades programs until the program fills. Check into specific deadlines for the program(s) of interest.

<http://www.bcit.ca/admission/whentoapply.shtml>

- Capilano University – Application deadline for the Fall Semester is in March

<http://www.capilanou.ca/admissions/Application-Information/>

- Douglas College – You can generally apply up to a year in advance for the semester you want. You can apply online until 2 weeks before the start of the Fall Semester.

<https://www.douglascollege.ca/study-at-douglas/apply/canadian-students/when-to-apply>

- Kwantlen Polytechnic University – Applications open for Fall Semester on in November. Early application deadline is in March and the final application deadline is in August.

<http://www.kpu.ca/admission/deadlines-fees>

- SFU – Students can begin applying in the Fall. Admission to Fall Term deadline is in February https://www.sfu.ca/students/deadlines/admission_scholarships.html

- UBC – Deadline to apply is in January

<https://you.ubc.ca/applying-ubc/>

- UVIC - Students can begin applying in the Fall. Deadline to apply is in February.

<http://www.uvic.ca/future-students/undergraduate/admissions/deadlines/index.php>

- Universities in Alberta – Go to www.applyalberta.ca
- Universities in Ontario – Go to www.ouac.on.ca/ouac-105/
- All other universities/colleges – check their website for admission deadlines

*NOTE – Each institution will instruct you as to how you are to submit your marks as well as deadlines for supplemental admission information. If you need assistance, see your school Career Resource Facilitator or School Counselor.