

Celebrate Arts and Culture Together

Explore the rich traditions of global cultures with these hands-on family workshops, perfect for individuals and families looking to connect, create, and celebrate

Year of the Snake:

Farmer's Market Family Painting Fun (4+Yrs)

Celebrate the Lunar New Year with your family by painting a vibrant snake design on small canvas panels. Leave with a unique collaborative artwork and memories of this colourful tradition.

Sunday, February 16

11:00AM – 12:00PM

Offsite Location: Port Moody Farmers Market

Click to Register

Family Mask-Making for Purim (4+ Yrs)

Celebrate Purim with your family by making colourful and festive masks! This hands-on workshop is designed for one adult and one child to work together to create their own unique masks inspired by Jewish traditions.

Sunday, March 9

11:00AM – 12:30PM

Click to Register

Inuit-Inspired Wall Hangings for Spring (9+ Yrs)

Welcome spring with a beautiful felt wall-hanging inspired by Inuit art, featuring arctic animals and scenes. As you create, the instructor will share Inuit cultural teachings about the land and animals depicted in your artwork, as well as the importance of sewing as a survival skill for Inuit.

Saturday, March 22

12:00PM – 4:00PM

Click to Register

2425 St Johns Street
Port Moody, BC

info@pomoarts.ca | pomoarts.ca

Follow us on social media! @pomoarts

Acting and Theatre Arts Programs

Step into the spotlight with our growing lineup of performance & storytelling programs, offering opportunities for everyone—from absolute beginners to experienced performers looking to refine their craft.

Epic Stories: D&D Adventures (9–12 Yrs)

Embark on a one-of-a-kind adventure in these single-session Dungeons & Dragons workshops for preteens! Led by an experienced Dungeon Master and improv performer, you'll collaborate to create an unforgettable story full of twists, turns, and fun.

Wednesday, February 12
6:30PM – 8:30PM

Wednesday, March 12
6:30PM – 8:30PM

Click to Register

Bringing Puppets to Life (13–17 Yrs)

Step into the world of puppetry, a performing art like no other, in this fun and interactive workshop for teens! You'll learn how to control a variety of puppets and create realistic movements that bring characters to life.

Wednesday, May 14
6:30PM – 8:30PM

Click to Register

2425 St Johns Street
Port Moody, BC
info@pomoarts.ca | pomoarts.ca
Follow us on social media! @pomoarts