Happy Friday, everyone!

It has been another vibrant week in Anmore! Between bluer skies and longer days, the continued anticipation of spring continues even with the Winter Olympics in the background.

Our students had a blast this week hosting players from the Vancouver Warriors Lacrosse team, enjoying a presentation, participating in a few challenges, and getting tips from some real professionals. Divisions One and Two also welcomed students from Centennial Secondary's Social Justice 12 course, who led meaningful and insightful conversations about Black History Month, and Division Two rounded out the week with a daylong session on First Aid.

We officially rang in the Year of the Fire Horse this week, with special thanks to Jackie and our dedicated Hot Lunch Parents for organizing not only the food, but red envelopes for each of the kids to bring luck in the new year. Lunch yesterday coincided with the Women's Hockey Gold Medal Game, which unfortunately ended with Canada losing in overtime to the United States, but brought together a tense group of students, staff, and parents for the final moments.

Of course, the Olympics have infiltrated much in the world of young people with the celebration of peak performances, processing the agony of defeat, and the stirring of patriotism and dreams of sporting futures. The timing could not be better either, as students continue to hone their skipping skills as we move toward Jump Rope for Heart next week, and our basketball Bears compete in the district Jamboree this evening at Scott Creek Middle School.

Next week we will recognize our Social and Emotional Learning Achievements in a recognition ceremony on Monday afternoon, and enjoy our intermediate students' efforts at public speaking, both in the classroom and the gym toward the end of the week.

And after that? March! We are truly entering the blink-and-you'll-miss-it days of the year...

Wishing you a restful weekend, in the meantime,

Bryan Jackson
