

Greetings parents and Guardians.

Hope you are all well on this snowy morning. Looks like the last of the snow for the year (?). I grew up in Prince George, so I am certainly used to it, love it, love to see our kids excited about it, but do not particularly like the disruption it causes (safety concerns, cancellation of field trips, tournaments, and games). Moving forward, always assume school will be open – if it will be closed, I will E-mail you directly, the school district will post it on their website, I will post it on our website and the radio, and AM 980, News 1130 and other stations will announce any closure.
