

For those of us born in Canada and other Easter -celebrating countries, Easter is a well known concept, but if you are newer to this holiday, I'll admit, it's a bit confusing. I mean, why is a bunny hiding eggs and why does that mean my kids have 2 days off school? Easter is a Christian holiday that, much like Christmas, has a non religious, commercial side, and is recognized as a stat holiday in Canada. If you are interested in learning more, check out the many local community events as well as faith-based events that will be happening throughout March. Word to the wise though, those little mini egg chocolates are very addicting!

St. Patrick's Day

Bring out your green! St. Patrick's Day—observed every March 17—is packed with parades, good luck charms, and all things green. The event started as a religious holiday, but over time it's become a celebration of Irish culture. It is named for the patron saint of Ireland but over time has just become a fun day of green celebration in Canada.
