Rotary Club of Port Coquitlam Rib Fest Volunteers Needed

The event is approaching fast and there are still many volunteer positions that need to be filled that span all areas of the event, such as:

- Pouring beer, serving tables, expediting food, or bussing tables in the VIP Zone
- Clearing garbage and sorting recycling as part of the Green Team
- Working with kids as an Activity Coordinator in the Kids Zone
- Laying out food and greeting volunteers in the Volunteer Break Tent
- Using an electronic counter to help us monitor the number of people in the park
- Collecting donations for the Rotary Club of Port Moody
- Checking ID and giving out bracelets for people who want to drink
- And many more opportunities!

All three communities in the Tri-Cities benefit from this event and funds go to feed kids from disadvantaged homes with Starfish, sending many of those disadvantaged kids to Camp Jubilee, Christmas hampers, and so many other community programs that the four clubs support in the Tri-Cities.

Check the available shifts to see if there is a time slot that is open for you to help us out.
<https://bit.ly/RibfestVolunteers>

In addition to the activities shown above, our club also needs volunteers to assist us with the parking from Friday evening through until late Sunday afternoon, as an alternative as well. Shifts are very flexible. Contact Gaye Simms at gdsimms@shaw.ca for those shifts.

We hope you can help us to help the vulnerable within our communities.
