Track & Field

Congratulations!! to the Centennial Track & Field Team for their performances at Fraser North Championships last week. 50 athletes competed and at least 15 students will be advancing to Provincials in Langley on June 5-7th! A special shout out to our 1st Place Finishers: Jaylah Dennis in Junior Girls High Jump, 100m, and 200m; Kallee Lennstrom in Junior Girls 800m; Elizabeth Blatherwick in Junior Girls Hammer; and Senior Boys 4x400m Relay Team (Harry Lobay, Rufus Rowe, Liam Pearson, Nathaniel Lum)! The Senior Girls 4x400m team also had an incredible 2nd place finish with Cassie Maltas, Titi Balogun, Avery Turcotte, and Jaylah Dennis. Athletes - check Teams for important messages about Provincials!

The Sr Girls Soccer Team

The Sr Girls Soccer team won the Fraser North Championship yesterday 2-1 over a very skilled Burnaby Central team.

Missing 8 of our 19 players (injury, other commitments), we called up 4 Junior players to play and the team didn't miss a beat.

The team went down 1-0 on a great individual effort by a Burnaby Central player. In the 2nd half though, the Centaurs battled back to tie with a beautiful goal by Catie Cameron. With 9 minutes left in the game, Camryn Strain was sent in on a semi-breakaway and she made no mistake...putting the ball in the bottom corner to give the Centaurs the 2-1 lead.

Amalie Griffiths played unbelievably in net, making numerous game-saving saves. Another testament to our depleted roster...Amalie plays on the wing for us normally, but hasn't played in a couple of weeks due to injury. However because we were so short handed, she offered to go in net for this Championship Final so that we could get our regular keeper - Eden Kolins - to play as an out-player and give us another runner to use.

Hayley, Supriya, and I are all very proud of these girls and their perseverance through this tournament and the season. The squad now travels to Victoria May 28th - 31st for the Provincials.

The team has also qualified for the Provincial Championships May 29-31st at UVIC in Victoria.”

Go Centaurs!!
