SPORTS

RUGBY RESULTS

This week was a difficult week for some of the rugby teams.

Girls – they had a BYE week and next week is supposed to be Fraser North Finals; however, with a couple injuries sustained at practice we are concerned that we may have to bow out of both the Championship game and Provincials this year. We are struggling to field a team!

Junior Boys – they played in the Fraser North Semi-Finals yesterday and were in a back and forth game. In the end, the speed of Byrne Creek managed to capitalize. The final was 6 tries to 3 for them. “Player of the Game” was given to Cristian C. and Kai M.

Senior Boys – they also played in the Fraser North Semi-Finals yesterday. The team dominated Burnaby Central and managed to win 38-17. Player of the Game was given to Julian S. and Jalen H. who both played their best game of the season. This win has also secured us a berth into the Provincials (May 30th to June 3rd).

RUGBY

The Girls 15’s next match is Wednesday, May 24th against Gleneagle Secondary for the Fraser North Finals! Game is at Town Centre field. Good luck Blue Devils

TODAY - SENIOR BADMINTON

Friday, May 19th after school at New Westminster Secondary. Good luck team!

TRACK AND FIELD

The Track team is competing in the Fraser North Zone Provincial qualifiers on Monday, May 23rd and Tuesday, May 24th at Burnaby Central Secondary. Students, if you're looking for someone to cheer on on the Pro-D Monday, go check it out. The competition is going to be great!
