

ATTENTION PARENTS/GUARDIANS:

Wondering what your child's options are for Secondary School?

Want to know more about the variety of courses and programs that the Coquitlam School District has to offer?

Want to learn more about courses and programs that might be the 'best fit' for your child's learning style, gifts and talents?

Come to Citadel's Info Night for Parents/Guardians:

An Intro to Secondary Program Options in the Coquitlam School District

WHO: Parents/Guardians (students will be receiving a presentation in class early that day)

WHEN: TUESDAY, January 6, 2015, at 7:00pm

WHERE: Citadel Library

WHY: Though most student do go to their feeder schools, education is changing, and each year provides more unique opportunities through various courses and programs to meet different students' needs. I hope to provide you with a simple and brief overview of current specialty programs and courses. There will be time for questions after the half hour presentation. Of course, the district website is the most comprehensive resource for parents/guardians wanting to look into programs for their child; I merely hope to give you a starting point.

The district website: <http://www.sd43.bc.ca>. Be sure to contact individual schools/programs for further information.
