

- 1. Lost and Found – Please check out the mountain of clothes in the front foyer for any lost items.
- 2. Today is June 21st, Indigenous Peoples Day. For generations, many indigenous groups and community have celebrated their culture and heritage around this time of year because of the significance of summer solstice as the longest day of the year.

The artist of the day is Indigenous Artist Anachid and her song Braids.