

Citadel Middle School

Tuesday November 5th

Our Book Fair will be open today after school until 6pm! We hope to see everyone there to see all the great books, and as a reminder, the more we sell, the more we are able to get for our Library! As a bonus, Everyone who attends during the conferences can enter in a draw to win a prize for yourself and your classroom teacher! The winner will be announced on Thursday morning. See you in the Library!
