Our Action Plan for Learning

Intellectual Development Goal

Focus on supporting and improving students' confidence and perseverance in number sense

Human & Social Development Goal

Self regulation and mindfulness

Indigenous Learners & Indigenous Ways of Learning Goal

Utilizing First Peoples' Principles of Learning in practice in our classrooms

Focus on attendance

Students should,
of course, stay home when they're sick

Research shows a direct correlation between attendance and learning,
especially at elementary

Except when ill...students should be at school

Being on time is an important part of attendance

School & Home working together

Stay in touch

Check planners, class & school emails for information

Practice daily

reading

Set aside time for quiet reading and other school
friendly activities

Get involved

When possible,
attend events,
volunteer, donate to PAC or attend a school-wide event

Share Information

Let teachers know about upcoming trips, struggles students are experiencing, etc.

The background is a warm, golden-yellow color. In the center, a large white semi-circle represents a sun or moon. To the left, there is a stylized tree with a brown trunk and a canopy of yellow and orange leaves. To the right, there is another stylized tree with a dark brown trunk and a canopy of yellow and orange leaves. In the bottom left corner, there is a brown log with a small blue leaf on a twig. In the bottom right corner, there is a pinecone. The text "Jo Kopf" is written in a dark brown, serif font, and the email address "jkopf@sd43.bc.ca" is written in a smaller, dark brown, sans-serif font below it.

An autumn-themed illustration featuring a winding path through rolling hills. The hills are in shades of yellow and orange. There are several trees with colorful foliage in shades of orange, red, and yellow. A single orange leaf is shown falling from the top. The background is a light beige color with soft, white clouds. The text is written in a brown, cursive font and is centered on the page.

“At École Coquitlam River Elementary, all members of the school community, students, parents, and staff, are committed to ensuring that we provide a safe, caring and orderly learning environment.”
