

District Parent Advisory Council

March 30, 2017

Dear Future Executive Member,

I hope that you have been considering submitting your name for a position on the DPAC Executive. To help you understand what our executive roles require, I am sending you this email with more detailed information and encouraging you to submit your nomination.

I am writing on behalf of the 2017 Nominating committee whose task is to seek out and encourage nominations for positions on the DPAC Executive. We are looking for people who understand and appreciate the purposes and vision of our organization. We are looking for parents who have had experience in leadership roles and who are ready to bring their passion, energy and skills to the district level to support parent involvement in the education of all students.

The enclosed information details Board Members' duties and nomination procedures along with other background information that will help you understand the expectations and support for the important job of DPAC Board Member.

- Outline of Position Descriptions

It is very satisfying to know that you can make a difference and improve the public education experience of students in District#43 through support and service to The District Parent Advisory Council. I encourage you to join us so that parents have a stronger voice in our district for the benefit of all our children.

Please e-mail the DPAC Office office@dpac43.org for any further information or assistance.

On behalf of the Nominations Committee

Sandy Maloney
DPAC 43 Administrative Assistant
