│ Placement in EAL classes is based on information provided from the │ │ student's previous school and results of an assessment test given by │
│ the EAL coordinator.   │
│   │
│ Students will begin at the level assigned by the EAL coordinator and │
│ progress through the remaining courses in order. When the student │
│ takes English Language Development 11 (ELD 11), they may be   │
│ prepared to also take Social Studies 10 if they do not have transfer │
│ credit from their own country.   │
│   │
│ After ELD 11, the student is ready to take English 10. This is followed │
│ by English 11 and English 12, as well as a Social Studies 11 or 12 │
│ course to meet graduation requirements.   │
