

Experience what it's like to live with a learning disability.

Walk a Mile in My Shoes

Interactive Workshop

This workshop uses interactive simulations and exercises to raise awareness about learning disabilities. Trained facilitators help participants to explore learning disabilities such as: Dysgraphia, Dyslexia, Dysnomia, Dyscalculia, ADHD, Visual-Perception, and others. Workshops can be tailored to groups large and small and are appropriate for children and adults. Perfect for Professional Development Days, volunteer training, classrooms, manager training and much more.

The Learning Disabilities Association of Metro Vancouver (LDAV) is a registered charity that provides individualized learning programs that promote early identification and remediation of children with learning disabilities.

*"I now understand how hard it is for my brother to read."
– Nancy, Vancouver*

*"It is crucial for us (teachers) to have information like yours to better ourselves and the "system".
- Veronika, West Vancouver*
