Ivey at Western University Summer Leadership Program

- SLP is a four-day immersive experience for high school students, currently in Grades 9 to 11, passionate about business, leadership, and innovation.
- From August 5–8, 2025, students will stay on campus at Western University and take part in case-based learning, interactive workshops, and real-world problem-solving at Ivey Business School.
- <https://www.ivey.uwo.ca/summerleadership/>
- June 16, 8:59PM PT application deadline

Application Requirements : We are seeking motivated, passionate, and dedicated students currently in grades 9-11, eager to embrace the challenges of a fast-evolving business world. Applicants will be evaluated based on:

- Leadership & Extracurricular Involvement – Active participation in extracurricular activities, showcasing your ability to lead and make an impact in your community or school.
- Statement of Interest – An opportunity to share why you're passionate about leadership, business, and innovation, and how you hope to apply what you learn at SLP.

Program Fee: There is a $350 participant fee to attend the program, which covers the cost of your accommodation, meals, and program materials. Financial assistance may be available; please contact us for more details if needed.

COMMUNITY

Volunteer Opportunity

Do you like to be outdoors? Have a bit of a green thumb?

Freshroots is hosting a volunteer event on Tuesday May 13th, afterschool from 4:00-7:00 pm. We are looking for a team to help care for the orchard onsite -- we will be removing invasive morning glory and blackberry, mulching the soil with wood chips, and building a new bed in the orchard to grow more veggies this summer.

The event is open to anyone in the community; we are asking for those attending to sign up on our website, here: <https://freshroots.ca/volunteer/> (scroll down to Big Help -> Millside Center).
