Daily Announcements

Monday, June 19, 2017

Good Morning. I'm _____ and I'm _____ and these are the morning announcements.

Overdue Library books! NEW

All books are officially overdue! Kudos to divisions, 2, 6, 11, 13, 15, 18, and 20 for getting all of their books in! It's not too late for divisions 1, 8, 10, 14, and 16 - all classes with just one book outstanding. The deadline to get your books in and have your book-free class entered for a draw for a pizza lunch is today at 3:30. Get your books in!

International Students Field Trip today NEW

All students attending please meet right after your teacher has finished attendance by the spirit bear.

KVR lunch NEW

It's a wrap! Tomorrow we will celebrate our great season with a Subway lunch and the world premier of the KVR 2017 slideshow! Bring a USB if you'd like a copy of pictures from the trip. Meet in Mrs. Hampton's room at lunch tomorrow!

Triathlon! NEW

It's this Wednesday! Prizes have been collected, snacks for participants and food for the concession stand bought, and the course will be marked today. Get plenty of rest and don't forget your bike, goggles, water bottle, and runners this Wednesday. The Norwegians are forecasting some great weather.

Have a good day!
