

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, November 18, 2022

Good morning.

We'll be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Here are your announcements:

Unfortunately the Stop Motion club is cancelled today due to Mr. Marshall's absence. We will start up next week!

Yes, D&D Club is, ahem...ROLLING again this week. DMs in training should grab their character sheets and head to either Mr. Holbrook's or Mr. Marshall's room ready to play. See Mr. Holbrook if you have questions, please.

Jays Team are reminded that your MasterChef competition is on Monday! Bring your creations to the Home Ec room when you arrive at school Monday morning.

The lost and found table is overflowing of hoodies and jackets again! Check the table outside the DMA room and take what belongs to you!

Have a _____ Friday!
