

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, January 27, 2023

Wrestlers, please see Ms Chan today at nut break in room 159 to get final information for the tournament today at Terry Fox.

Any HLC members that were not at our meeting yesterday. Check in with Mr. Hart today.

Grade 6 basketball today at lunch in the gym! See you there!

D&D Club is ON after school today. Remember, only the Club's brave adventurers can stop the ornery owlbears, gnarly gnolls, and gruesome gelatinous cubes from taking over Hillcrest.

Have you misplaced a jacket, hoodie, water bottle, gloves or anything else? Check the Lost and Found table located outside the DMA room and claim your belongings!

A reminder for those signed up for our next Babysitting course on Monday from 8:35 to 2:56. Please bring a sports helmet for the day (any kind will do) as this will be used in the safety portion of the course. Also, please remember to bring food for breaks and lunch.
