

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday, April 18, 2023

Reminder to the grade 7/8 girls basketball team we have our wrap up pizza party today after the outside bell in room 169. See ya there!

Tuesday can only mean one thing, grade 6/7 basketball intramurals! What better way to spend your lunch than watching the fast pace action of basketball?!? Today's games feature the Fortite Rath versus the Pickleballers on the north court and the Ball Snatchers versus the Librarians on the South court. Attendance is welcome again but space is limited!

Today is day 2 of the Earth Day Eco Week Challenge. Today we want to use less natural gas by turning down the heat. To show participation all we need you to do is send in a picture of your team in sweaters or hoodies, even better if it's an ugly or silly sweater. We can't wait to see your photos!

Tomorrow is waste reduction day so try to bring a waste-free lunch, put your lunch in a reusable container so you won't leave a trace.
