

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, April 27, 2023

Tomorrow is our much anticipated Terry Fox run, which means that we only have one more day left of donations. If you haven't brought your toonie in for Terry yet there is still time. Let's continue raising money so we can reach our school goal!

Attention all Badminton players, we will have practice again today after school in the gym. See you there!

Are you interested in participating in Hillcrest's first annual crib tournament? Don't forget that sign up starts today during break times on the sheet outside of Ms. Wise's door.

Thursday is here which means we have the grade 8 intramurals at lunch. Playing today will be the Green Gang versus Pro Fortnite Gamers XD LOL. Spectators are welcome but will not be allowed in the gym until AFTER the lunch bell. A reminder that running through the halls by any student on their way to intramurals can postpone it indefinitely. We did a better job on Tuesday of getting to the gym so let's keep it up.

Announcer 1: The D Ampersand D Club meets this Friday after school to roll some dice and battle some monsters.

Announcer 2: I think you meant to say the D and D Club.

Announcer 1: That is what I said. An ampersand is a squiggly line thing called a logogram and it represents the conjunction "and". In other words, "Ampersand" means "And"

Announcer 2: Wait! What? I'm confused.

Announcer 1: Ok. I'll say it slower and louder. D... and... D... Club... meets... this... Friday...

Announcer 2: Ok. NOW I get it.
