

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, December 06, 2024

Good morning. We will be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

Hello Hillcrest! The Hillcrest 5 Days of Giving are coming up next week, from December 9th to 13th! This year, more families in our community need help than ever before. With inflation driving up grocery prices, even simple meals are harder for some to afford - but we can make a difference! Bring your non-perishable food donations to the boxes that will be located inside of your classrooms and join the fight against hunger. Every can of soup, box of pasta, or bag of rice is a step toward helping those who are feeling the squeeze of ever rising costs. Let's show the power and compassion of the Hillcrest community! Your generosity can bring comfort and relief to someone who truly needs it this season.

Calling all D&D Club members. The Dungeon Masters are trained and it's time to get our game on! Everyone interested in playing with the D&D Club should meet in Mr. Holbrook's room - room 120 - at 2:45 pm this Friday. Please see the D&D Club's Teams page for more information and talk to Mr. Holbrook if you have questions.
