

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wednesday, January 29, 2025

Good morning. We will be back in 30 seconds with your morning announcements.

There is beautification club today at lunch in the Outdoor ed room.

Pet Photo Contest - We're halfway through the last week for photo submissions! The categories are Pet Memes, Cutest and Best Dressed. We especially need more Pet Memes! Get your photos into Mr. Ross and be sure to include your pet's name, your name, division and category of choice. We look forward to seeing all those adorable furballs and well dressed reptiles!

Did you know that each Lunar New Year is connected to one of the 12 animals in the Chinese zodiac? The zodiac animals are the Rat, Ox, Tiger, Rabbit, Dragon, Snake, Horse, Goat, Monkey, Rooster, Dog, and Pig. This year is the Year of the Snake! People born in the Year of the Snake are often thought to be wise, graceful, and calm under pressure. The snake is also a symbol of elegance and mystery in the zodiac. BTW, most 11 year olds are Horses, 12 year olds are Snakes, and 13 year olds are Dragons. How cool is that?
