Iranian New Year

Guess what? Iranian New Year is coming! The official New Year arrives with the Spring Equinox next week, and the celebrations last for 13 days. The holiday ends with a massive outdoor picnic called Sizdah Bedar, where everyone heads to parks or the countryside to enjoy the fresh spring air. It's a reminder to appreciate nature and start the season with a clean slate. Sal-e No Mobarak—that's "Happy New Year" to everyone in our community celebrating soon!
