Thanks to our district grounds crew who cleaned up our courtyard. They weeded, pruned trees, and removed a large branch that was a potential hazard.

The courtyard has been opened again for students to enjoy.

BOOM CHICKA POP
SEA SALT POPCORN

POPCORN DAY
November 8

Our first popcorn day of the year will be Nov 8! This year, we'll be doing things a little differently. We will serve "Boom Chicka Pop" popcorn. We are hopeful that even more kids will be able to take part as it is vegan, gluten-free, kosher, and the only ingredients are popcorn, sunflower oil and sea salt. We are also asking the kids each bring their own reusable 2-cup container. Please line up outside near the gym at recess with your $1 and your container and we will fill them up.

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is looking to inspire young students to make a difference in their communities and teach them about social responsibility. We are pleased to offer volunteer opportunities that are flexible and a great way for the students to earn their volunteer hours! We have been coming up a Youth Philanthropy Club for students to be a part and learn how to effectively engage them in our community's philanthropic landscape and ultimately create youth empowerment. We are looking to provide students with the opportunity to learn about Philanthropy, nonprofit organizations, social issues and develop leadership and personal skills. For more information, please contact Jasmine Sekhon Jasmine.Sekhon@can.salvationarmy.org
