

2023 CMSAA BASKETBALL

Coquitlam Middle School Athletics CODE OF CONDUCT

The Coquitlam Middle School Athletic Association (CMSAA) believes in the development of skills through a variety of activities with an emphasis on fair play and equity of participation. It is our expectation that all students, coaches, spectators and officials conduct themselves in a manner that is polite, respectful, encouraging and supportive.

Players Code of Conduct

Play for the fun of it and not to please parents and coaches
Play by the rules
Cooperate and respect your coach teammates, and opponents
Work hard for yourself and for your team
Respect and accept officials' decisions
Demonstrate sportsmanship and fair play

Coaches Code of Conduct

The building of sound, fundamental skills and developing an appreciation for the game is our objective
Encourage team play
Every attempt should be made to give players equal playing time
Reinforce good sportsmanship whenever possible
Show respect for officials, other coaches and players at all times
As much as possible be a resource to your players, helping them to develop their athletic and human potential
While trying to treat all players equal, recognize that all children are not the same and respect their individual differences
Follow the CMSAA Guiding Principles Code of Conduct

Parents Code of Conduct

Remember, children are involved in sports for their enjoyment, not yours
Allow your children to participate in sports voluntarily
Remember that children learn best by example
Encourage your child to always play by the rules
Accept your child's mistakes and disappointments with positive reinforcement
Accept all officials' decisions and respect their integrity
Help your child understand that individual skills and achievement are more satisfying when applied to a team situation
Teach your child that an honest effort and hard work are just as important as a victory
