PORT MOODY POLICE

Intro to Policing program is now taking applicants. This program is free and provides 30 volunteer credit hours towards graduation. The program is intended to provide you with an experience of what it means to train and be a police officer. The program has a mandatory physical component and you must attend all 7 sessions. Seats are extremely limited so plan ahead, and if you are grade 11 get your forms in, people turned away in grade 11 are way more likely to get in in grade 12.

Please see Mr. Canuel in portable 9 for more information. The forms can be picked up at the office or from Mr. Canuel. You must turn in the filled in form to the Port Moody police station.

ART

Thank you, semester 1 art students, for letting us display your art in the classroom for the grade 8 tour last week. Please come pick up your dragons, pinch-pots, sketchbooks, and wild shaker critters as soon as you can from room 211art to avoid breakage.

EXHIBIT AT PLACE DES ARTS

You are invited to a free exhibit on now at Place des Arts featuring art from grade 12’s around the district, some art teachers, and two other exhibitor artists. A big congratulations to our grade 12’s: Sienna F., Sophie Z., Miyu O., Luiza R., Linda L., Maneli A., Jessie X., Kelly L., and Jiayi L. who all had artwork accepted for the show.
