

APPLICATION FOR A SOCIAL INSURANCE NUMBER

INFORMATION GUIDE

How to apply

In Person at a Service Canada Centre

Service Canada has made it easy for you to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN) or to amend your SIN record. When applying in person, you do not have to complete an application form or send your original documents in the mail. To find the Service Canada Centre nearest you, visit our Web site www.servicecanada.gc.ca or call 1 800 O Canada (1-800-622-6232).

Simply gather the document(s) you need and take them to the Service Canada Centre nearest you. Refer to Step 1 for a list of documents required. If everything is in order, you will obtain your SIN at the time of your visit. You will receive your card within 10 business days.

By mail to the Social Insurance Registration Office in Bathurst, New-Brunswick

If it is not convenient for you to apply in person, you can mail your application form and original document(s) required and the fee (if applicable), to the address below. If you send your application by registered mail, the document(s) will be returned to you in the same way. We are not responsible for documents lost in the mail. If your application and documents are in order, you will receive your SIN in the mail within 20 business days. Failure to provide the necessary documents will result in your application being returned to you. Follow Step 1 to 4 to submit your application by mail.

NOTE: There is no fee required when you are applying to receive a first SIN or amend the name or names on your SIN card if it is due to a legal change of name, a marriage, a divorce, an adoption, change the expiry date on a temporary SIN or amend information on your SIN record. To replace your SIN card, a $10 fee must be paid.

Step 1 - Gather the original documents required

Primary proof of identity document(s)

You must provide an original primary proof of identity document to prove your (the applicant's) identity and status in Canada. Copies or certified copies are not accepted. Failure to provide the necessary original documents will result in your application being returned to you.

Canadian citizens need to provide one of the following documents:

- Certificate of birth or birth certificate issued by the vital statistics agency in the province or territory where the applicant was born (Note: We do not accept Quebec proof-of- birth documents issued prior to 1994);
- Certificate of Canadian citizenship issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC); or
- Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad issued by CIC prior to 1977.

Registered Indians - Individuals registered with Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada need to provide the following documents:

- Born in Canada: one of the documents identified in section Canadian Citizens above and a Certificate of Indian Status issued by Indian and Northern Affairs Canada; or
- Born outside Canada: original foreign birth certificate and a Certificate of Indian Status.

Permanent residents of Canada need to provide one of the following documents:

- Permanent Resident Card issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC);
- Confirmation of Permanent Residence issued by CIC and affixed to a foreign passport or a travel document for visa exempt countries;
- Confirmation of Permanent Residence WITH visa counterfoil issued by CIC and affixed to a foreign passport or a travel document for non-visa exempt countries; or,
- Record of Landing (IMM 1000) issued by CIC;
- Verification of Landing issued by CIC; or,
- Status Verification issued by CIC.

Temporary residents of Canada need to provide one of the following documents:

- Work permit issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC);
- Study permit issued by CIC AND a contract of employment from the learning institution or employer on campus where you obtained authorization to study by CIC (this contract must show the start and end date of employment and these dates must fall within the study permit dates);
- Visitor record issued by CIC, indicating you are authorized to work in Canada; or
- Diplomatic identity card AND note of permission of employment issued by Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada.

Other - Individuals residing outside Canada who are not Canadian citizens or Registered Indians and are eligible for a Government of Canada benefit or pension need to provide the following documents:

- Foreign Birth Certificate AND
- Letter confirming eligibility for pension or benefits from Canada Pension Plan (CPP), Old Age Security (OAS) or Régie des rentes du Québec (RRQ).

Supporting document(s) required

Legal change of name

You must provide an original supporting document if the name indicated on your (the applicant's) primary proof of identity document (see above) is different than the name you are using now. The supporting document must be written in English or French. You will need to provide one of the following supporting documents, if required:

- Certificate of marriage, Record of Solemnization of Marriage, or Marriage Statement (or a similarly titled document, depending on the issuing authority) to support your family name after marriage (Note: This does not apply to Quebec residents who got married after April 1, 1981, regardless of where they were married);
- Legal change-of-name certificate or Court Order document issued in accordance with provincial/territorial change of name legislation;
- Adoption order certified by a Canadian (provincial or territorial) Court (applies to adoptions in Canada only);
- Notarial certificate or Notarial Adoption Certificate, issued by the country of origin of a child adopted abroad and used by the adoptive parents to have the SIN card issued in the adopted child's Canadian name;
- Request to Amend Record of Landing issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada used to amend a Record of Landing or a Confirmation of Permanent Residence document; or
- Divorce Decree (or a similarly titled document, depending on the issuing authority)

Additional document(s) required

Parents or legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child

If you are a parent or a legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child (i.e. child under the age of majority in their province/territory), you must also provide:

- Your child's original primary document;
- Your own original primary document as listed in Step 1 above; AND,
- If a legal guardian, an original document or certified copy confirming legal guardianship issued by a provincial/territorial authority (in Quebec, a notarized will is an acceptable document).

Legal representative applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult

If you are a legal representative applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult, you must provide:

- The child's or adult's original primary document(s);
- Your valid identification issued by a provincial/territorial authority in Canada;
- Letter of Delegation from your agency confirming your legal authority to represent (if applicable); AND
- An original document or certified copy confirming legal representation issued by a provincial/territorial authority (in Quebec, a notarized will is an acceptable document).

Step 2 - Complete the Application Form

You must fully complete item #1 to #13, sign and date the application form (in blue or black ink). If "X" is used as a signature, two witnesses must sign in the signature portion and indicate their relationship to you on the application form.

Failure to fully complete, sign and date the application form will result in your application being returned to you.

Signature on the application form:

The application form must be signed by the applicant, except in the following situations:

- Child under 12 years of age: the parent, legal guardian or legal representative must sign the application form.
- Child over the age of 12 and under the age of majority in their province/territory: either the child, parent or legal guardian can sign the application form.
- Adult applicant who is legally represented by an individual: a legal representative must sign the application form.

IMPORTANT: The relationship to the applicant must also be indicated with the signature (e.g. mother/father or parent, legal guardian or legal representative).

Step 3 - Pay the Fee

To apply for a replacement SIN card, a $10.00 fee is required. From within Canada, you can pay this fee by cash, personal cheque, bank draft or money order payable in Canadian funds only to the Receiver General for Canada. From outside Canada, you can pay this fee using International bank drafts or money orders payable in Canadian funds only and written to the Receiver General for Canada.

It is recommended to never send cash by mail. Application received with payments made in funds other than Canadian funds will be returned.

Step 4 - Mail the application and documents

Mail the fully completed, signed, dated application form and original documents, and fee (if applicable) to:

Service Canada
Social Insurance Registration Office
P.O. Box 7000
Bathurst, New Brunswick, Canada
E2A 4T1

Note: Prior to mailing your application, refer to the Document Checklist - Social Insurance Number to ensure your application is complete. An incomplete application will be returned to you.
