This Week in Review:

Hello Everyone,
Its been a busy week with lots of excitement! The Scholastic Book Fair generated a huge buzz at Ranch Park, and I had many students telling me how much they loved it! Thank you all for generously supporting reading for your children. Thank you to PAC and to the many parent volunteers who came in to manage the book fair.

Thank you to our fantastic HipHop instructors Jerome and Tim from Movin. Our students had a great time learning new skills and celebrating dance and movement! Thank you again to PAC for covering the cost of this awesome event. We will have a video version for parents to enjoy soon!

For those planning ahead for Halloween Day, we recommend your child wear a costume they can manage themselves. We will have our costume parade outdoors at 11:00. Students will parade out the door in the undercover area, pass through the undercover, and return through the north doors. Parents can stay in the undercover area to shelter from the forecast system of "atmospheric rivers"! Tuesday will be pyjama day as we all recover from Trick or Treating the night before.

Thank you to PAC for organizing the Pumpkin
Carving/Pizza/Movie Night. It's a great opportunity for families to come together and build community and connections.

We would like to remind parents to please fill out the PAC information form on KEV. This information is crucial to helping PAC with communication to parents

I hope you all have a great weekend.
