

Jesse Miller is a national speaker presenting and consulting to schools, non-profit groups and companies across Canada since 2007. Jesse is in high demand as a keynote speaker on the topics of social media awareness, Internet safety & online content evaluation. During the 2010/2011 school year, his awareness programs for schools in the province of British Columbia reached over 175,000 student participants.

Using behaviour changing presentation techniques, Jesse has an un-matched ability to motivate his audience to evaluate their online profiles, to assess privacy and address mobile connectivity issues. The approach, designed through multimedia based awareness campaigns, delivers a message of awareness to an audience who previously had no idea of their vulnerabilities when participating in online environments.

Jesse is a trusted resource to numerous school districts in British Columbia and Public Safety Agencies across Canada who uses his expertise to address issues that occur in school hallways, the family home and on social media platforms. Jesse has been featured in numerous radio and television broadcasts, publications and articles as an authority on the topics of Internet safety, social media safety and the use appropriate use of mobile technology.
