The Riverside Secondary Musical Theatre 11/12 class is proud to present the innovative and upbeat musical "Zombie Prom"! Filled with 26 songs and tons of snappy dance steps, inspired by B movies and colourful comic books, this show is fun for the whole family. Adapted from the off-Broadway show and the award-winning short film, "Zombie Prom: The Musical" is about a love that never dies.

Our tale begins in the hallways of Enrico Fermi High School, somewhere in America in 1959, and features the story of high school lovers: Jonny Warner, the "rebel without an H" and Toffee Glaze, the sweetest girl in town. When nasty principal Miss Delilah Strict gets involved, and Toffee and Jonny call it quits, disaster strikes! Will the peppy pair ever reunite?

This satirical show will have you tapping your toes, and falling in love, with the effervescent 30-member cast. As the finale song so aptly goes:

*"Here's to us, here's to us, here's to all we have in store...
Here's to you, here's to me, you make my life worth living for!"*
