

Danielle Hoult Courage Award Application

PORT COQUITLAM PROFESSIONAL
FIREFIGHTERS CHARITABLE SOCIETY

Qualifications for Receiving a Courage Award

We at the Port Coquitlam Professional Firefighters Charitable Society (PCPFCS) are proud to sponsor the Danielle Hoult Courage Award in memory of Dani Hoult. Dani was a 2019 Graduate of Riverside Secondary who touched the lives of everyone she met. She courageously battled cancer for many years and was an inspiration to us all because of her character, empathy and courage while facing so much adversity. Dani passed away in April 2021 and we want to honour Dani's memory by annually presenting 2 $2000 awards for post-secondary school or training to a graduating Riverside and a graduating Terry Fox Secondary student that embodies the same characteristics as Dani.

To Qualify for a Danielle Hoult Courage Award $2000 Scholarship, a student should represent some or all of the following:

- Kindness, empathy and respect toward classmates, teachers and staff
- Courage by going forward in the face of adversity
- Positivity in dealing with everyday situations
- Resiliency in the face of unusually difficult circumstances at home or a life changing obstacle

Selections will be made in early-or mid-June.
