

Getting to Know the Socially Responsible Me

In my _____ class, I did this / these activities which helped me explore social responsibility.

Check the box (✓) that best describe you as a socially responsible person. After you make your selections, give practical examples or evidence why that description is true.

- ☐ I contribute to the community. I take responsibility for my social environment and work to make things better for others and my community.
- ☐ I care for the environment. I take responsibility for the things that I do that affect the natural environment.
- ☐ I solve problems peacefully. I appreciate different perspectives on issues and use strategies to solve problems
- ☐ I value diversity. I recognize and value differences in others and acknowledge that these differences are a valued asset.
- ☐ I develop positive relationships. I develop and maintain positive relationships at home, school, work, and in my community.

Here are some examples of my thinking that support this belief:

My strengths as a socially responsible person:	My opportunities to improve as a socially responsible person:

Now you can use what you have reflected upon here to write your competency reflection as an Edublog post: Go to your Edublog, open the Core Competencies tab, start a new post using the Self-Assessment template.