

RAPID READ

Friday, March 10th, 2023

EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

- For those participating in the Black Excellence Art contest – the deadline has been extended to after Spring Break. If you brought your pieces today, please bring them to Room 117 before lunch today.
- Attention all Grade 11's, please check MyEd for your CLC teacher. Your first class will start right after Spring Break on Tuesday and Thursday at lunch.
- Any student interested in travelling to Italy over Spring Break 2024, come to a meeting in the library at lunch today.
- Did you ever go to PoCo Happy Times Preschool? They are celebrating their 50 year anniversary! If you ever attended, please join them at their celebration TODAY from 6pm - 8pm in the gym at James Park Elementary School.

WEEKLY CAFETERIA SPECIALS

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Sweet & Sour Pork	Pastrami sandwiches with house cured pickles and a side of onion rings	Pancake breakfast, hashbrowns, scrambled eggs & turkey sausage	Chefs Choice	Chefs Choice

SPORTS/ATHLETICS

- RSS Hockey defeated Centennial 3-0 in their home opener. Goals by Braden Delesoy, Colin Lambert and Jordan Cecchetto. Marcus Jack chipped in with helpers. Shout out by Rookie goalie Rhys Penninga!
- Congratulations to the Sr. Girls Soccer who came 3rd at the Guildford Park tournament yesterday. Shout out to Maggie Thurbide on winning the first tournament ALL STAR!

MUSIC/THEATRE

- If you would be interested in attending "Shen Yun" a performance about China before Communism, it will be playing at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre from March 21st – 26th. Use the code "School23" to receive a savings of $10.25 per ticket! You can visit www.shenyun.com/vancouver

Happy Spring Break everyone! See you on Monday, March 27th!