EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Today is Red Dress Day, and we will honour the 1000's of murdered and missing Indigenous women, girls, and 2 spirits. Show your support to bring awareness of Red Dress Day by joining the procession of drummers at the Theatre doors today at lunch! You can also show your support by standing behind the drummers in the front foyer at the end of the procession.
- Emily Carr Headstart in Art is accepting applications for their program that will be held at Gleneagle in the evenings during Fall 2023. This course will carry degree credit. Apply by May 26th. More information on the Career Website.
- Join us today at lunch for our Timbits sale outside the cafeteria for $5 a box! 100% of the proceeds we make are going towards making care packages to support children and refugee families in our Port Coquitlam community! Thanks from the GIVE4GOOD Club.
- For this week's Good Green News: New York has become the first state in the United States to pass a law prohibiting natural gas and other fossil fuels in most new buildings, reducing emissions from homes and businesses.

SPORTS/ATHLETICS

- RSS Hockey:
 - RSS2 had an amazing game against Gleneagle yesterday, winning 9-1. Campbell Pearse earned the win in convincing fashion playing in net. Scoring led by Alex Chamberlain and Isaac Hawkins both with Hatties (Hat Tricks). Other goals were scored by Jacob Aragon, Carter Dand and Damon Douglas. Way to go Rapids!
 - Provincials start today for both RSS1 and RSS2. Come support the RSS2 today at Poco Rec. in their first playoff game at 6:45pm versus David Thompson. RSS1 will be playing Saturday in a Semi-Final game at Planet Ice. Gametime is yet to be confirmed. Follow us on Instagram @RSSHockey for Provincial gametime updates. Go Rapids! Pack the Barn!
